There was a big turnout of golfers last light at the annual meeting of the Metropolitan Golf Association, which was held at the Metropolitan Club, New York. Thirty-one clubs were represented by delegates out of the forty-eight clubs which form the association. The second game was won by the Carrolls, 822 to 693, while the third also went their way, 781 to 698.

It is expected that an unusually interesting bowling contest will come off next Thursday night on the Golden Eagles' alleys, when the Warriors of this city meet the Excelsiors of Baltimore. This will be the beginning of several intercity matches. The Excelsiors is the crack team of Baltimore, while the Warriors will comprise the cream of Washington's bowlers.

TEAMS SIZED UP.

Western Critic Analyzes Playing Strength of American League. From the St. Louis Republic.

From the list of players signed by the American League clubs, as promulgated by Ban Johnson, it appears that Chicago and Philadelphia may have a runaway race for the championship, with Boston and Detroit tagging along.

Chicago has Griffith, Callahan, Garvin, Katoll, Skopeck and Patterson for pitchers. McFarland and Sullivan for catchers, Isbell, Daly, Davis and Strong in the infield and Jones, Mertes and Green in the outfield. The team is strong in the batteries, strong in the infield and strong in the outfield. Strong, Mertes and Green are the weak sisters of the nine. The first cannot bat and the last two are not what might be called "brainy" nlavers brainy" players.

Philadelphia signed Frazer, Bernhard, Dugglesby for pitchers: Steelman and Powers, Catchers; Davis, Lajoie, Monte Cross and "Laye" Cross for the in-field, and Hartsel, Fultz and Flick for the outfield. The team's strength lies in its batting and the work of its infielders. The pitchers are not high-water mark and Steelman has a long way to go before he be-comes a first-class catcher. Hartsel is an outfielder of only average ability, Fuliz an outheider of only average amilty, Fullz an experiment and Flick none too certain. What the players lack in fielding ability, however, they are almost sure to make up in their batting, and the pitcher who meets the team when it has one of its good days will wish himself sunk in the Schuylkill before the game is three innings old. Not Up to Pittsburg Standard. Neither the Chicago team nor the Philadelphia team is up to the standard of the present Pittsburg team of the National League, or up to that of the former Brookyn champions, Boston champions or Baltimore champions.

Boston has Young, Winter, Dineen, Prentice and Williams, pitchers; Warner and Criger, catchers; LaChance, Ferris, Parent and Collins in the infield, and Hickman, Stahl and Freeman in the outfield. This team is strong in pitchers unless Cy Young has reached the limit of his effectiveness strong behind the bat if Criger is not ill two-thirds of the time; strong at third base and shortstop, and weak in the outfield, though good at the bat. It does not rate up like a team of championship caliber. McGraw has signed McGinnity, Howell, Hughes, Foreman and Nops to pitch; Rob-inson, Bresnahan and Erickson to catch; McGann, Williams, Gilbert and McGraw for the infield and Kelly, Selbach, Donlin and Seymour for the outfield. McGinnity is an exploded phenomenon. Without a strong fielding team behind him he cannot make the record he did when a Brooklyn player. The catching department is only fair; the infield is erratic and the outfield. unless Kelly plays there, is merely an average combination.

Detroit has Miller, Slevers, Yeager, Mulins, Mercer and Crystal for pitchers, Casey and Elberfield for the infield and Harley, Barrett and Holmes for the outfield. There is more real American League blood in the team than in any in the circuit. It is one of those organizations that, as a rule, are quite certain to give the spectators value received in the shape of a lively game, but when it comes to a finish the players will probably be found lagging far behind the Pitchers for St. Louis Team. In St. Louis they have signed Powell, Sudhoff, Donohue and Reidy for pitchers. Harper is claimed, but he certainly signed a National League contract, and it remains to see how the dispute is settled. The catchers are Douglass, Maloney and an unknown. The infielders are Anderson, Padden, Wallace and Friel; the outfielders, Burkett, Heidrick and McFarland. Frank de Haas Robison has in his possession per-sonal two-year contracts with Wallace and

sonal two-year contracts with Wallace and Heidrick, and it will be interesting to see if they can break them.

Washington's list includes Carrick, Lee, Orth, Patten and Townsend, pitchers; Donahue and Clark, catchers; Carey, Coughlin, Wolverton, Keister and Ely, infielders; Delehanty, Gettman and Ryan, outfielders. It is probably the most pronounced all-aged team in the league.

Cleyeland's list is Wright, Moore and Cleveland's list is Wright, Moore and Scott, pitchers; Wood, catcher; Schreckenghost, Bonner, Bradley and Shay, infielders; McCarthy, Pickering and Harvey, outfielders. It looks to be almost as good as the Cleveland club of last year. If two or three more men equally strong are signed there is more men equally strong are signed there is a possibility that it will be able to finish in eighth place.

NON-CONFLICTING SCHEDULE.

merican and National Leagues to Arrange Dates on Peaceful Lines. Two important features came up in the base ball situation at Chicago yesterday. One was the unequivocal statement of President Ban Johnson of the American League that no matter what the cutcome of the base ball controversy might be, there would be no conflict of schedules be-tween the National and American leagues venture.

There are advantages in the latest alleged Dreyfus idea that appeal so strongly to the leader of the Pittsburg team that he is said to have been quite insistent in pushing it before Mr. Spalding. The compact league would afford great sport, it is true, al-though the clubs would have to do a lot of traveling.

But blg crowds at Pittsburg and games in Chicago almost every Sunday during the season would make the National League a paying organization. The eight-club circuit could be reorganized in the fall, after the deadwood and the Freedman-Brush faction had become weary of the profitless participation in base ball.

> St. Louis' New Ball Club. Ralph Orthwein, a wealthy young business and clubman of St. Louis, has been elected president of the St. Louis American League Club. He became purchaser of stock in the club, the amount not be-ing announced. It is understood, however, that he is not to be a large stockholder and that W. L. Hedges, who has gone to St. Louis from Cincinnati to make his home, will retain a majority of all the stock of the club. Anton Steuver, former police commissioner of St. Louis, also becomes a stockholder in the club and will be ac tively interested in it. Several other St Louis capitalists will ultimately become owners of part of the stock now held by Hedges, but the latter will always retain

I had been a sufferer from indigestion for fifteen or twenty years, and it grew worse. I tried all the doctors I knew, and the more of their medicine I took the worse I got. About six mouths ago I got into a conversation with a lady and she told me she had been a sufferer from the same thing I had and she advised me to get some Ripans Tabules. I did so, and have kept on taking them ever since. Before I commenced to take them every time I would eat anything I would feel so full of wind or gas that it seemed as if I could not get my hreath, and sometimes I would have to stop and lie down for a while. Since I have taken Ripans Tabules I can eat anything, and it don't seem to hurt me at all. I suffered a good deal with a dull headache all the time and would get up with the headache, and oh, what a bad taste in my mouth. I commenced to take one Tabule at bed-time and in three or four days the head taste and headache were gone.
